No. Stamp-13/2013 - 25508 /R&DM, Dtd. 2nd July, 2013

To

All Collectors

Sub: Payment of stamp duty by the lessees of mining leases as per the provisions of the Indian Stamp (Odisha Amendment) Act, 2013.

Ref : This Department letter No. Stamp-13/2013-19876/R&DM, Dtd. 25.05.2013.

Sir,

In this Department letter under reference, you have been requested to ensure that the mining lessees who have made renewal applications to the State Government prior to the expiry of the lease, but renewal of the lease has not been granted by the State Government or the mining lease is under deemed extension as per the provisions contained in the relevant law in force pay the stamp duty as per the provisions of the Indian Stamp (Odisha Amendment) Act, 2013 read with rule 11-C of the Odisha Stamp Rules, 1952 inserted by the Odisha Stamp (Amendment) Rules, 2013. As instructed therein, such payments shall have to be made on or before 9th July, 2013 where the applicant has applied for renewal prior to the expiry of the lease, but the renewal of the lease has not been granted by the State Government or the lease is under deemed extension prior to the coming into force of the amendment Act or such expiry takes place on or after the commencement of the amendment Act but on or before 9th July, 2013. In case of renewals where the applicant applies prior to the expiry of the lease but the lease expires after 9th July, 2013, the payment of requisite stamp duty shall be made by the renewal applicants on or before the date of expiry of the lease.

P.T.O.

You are, therefore, once again requested to strictly ensure compliance to the aforesaid instructions within the time limit set out therein. The Dy. Directors of Mines and Mining Officers in charge of the Mining Circles have been instructed by the Steel and Mines Department to render necessary assistance in assessment of Stamp Duty as per the provisions of the amended Act to facilitate timely collection of the stamp duty.

Yours faithfully,
