

GOVERNMENT OF ODISHA
REVENUE & DISASTER MANAGEMENT DEPARTMENT

No. Regn-88/2015(Pt)-^{}29679 /R&D.M. dtd. 17.10.15

ORDER

In order to ensure better supervision and convenient mode of accounting of service charges, Government of Odisha, after careful consideration have approved the proposal of change of the modalities for deposit of 10% Government share of service charges collected under e-Registration Project in the State Government account as per the chart of account intimated by the Directorate of Treasuries and Inspection. Accordingly, a Supplementary deed to the original concession agreement has been executed between the Government in Revenue and Disaster Management Department, OCAC, Bhubaneswar and OeSL, Bhubaneswar on 08th July, 2015 with necessary substitution in the paras against bullets 4 & 5 under the caption "Procedure for collection of service charges" of schedule IV of the original concession agreement. As a follow-up measure, the para 4 and 5 of this Department Order No.168/R&DM dated 02.01.2010 have been substituted to the following extent.

10% of the total amount of the service charges collected every day, shall be deposited by the Registering officer or his authorized representative in State Government account in the chart of account "0030-stamps & registration fees-03-Registration fees-104-fees for Registering documents-0135-Registration fees-01053-User fee towards e-Registration" intimated by Directorate of Treasuries and Inspection, Odisha, Bhubaneswar by way of online/offline mode of deposit using IOTMS. The remaining 90% of the service charges so collected shall be deposited every day by the Registering officer or his authorized representative in the designated account of OeSL and OeSL shall cause transfer of the 90% of the service charges to IL&FS Technologies Ltd (ITL). The deposits made in respect of service charges both in Government account and OeSL account should be reflected in the cash book of Registering officer separately.

At the end of the month, OeSL shall reconcile the bank statement in respect of 90% deposit of service charges with computerised report signed by OeSL representative and Registering officer. The reconciled report along with another report indicating particulars of 10% of Govt. dues deposited out of total amount of service charges collected shall be submitted to the Revenue & Disaster Management Department under intimation to the IGR, Odisha, Cuttack. The Government fees as applicable and service charges for services rendered at Registration office shall be collected by the Registering officer. As provided under the Odisha Registration Rules, 1988 and as amended from time to time, a computer generated receipt shall be issued to the Citizen.

This shall take immediate effect.
