Section - I

1. Background

Education is the foundation of socio-economic development with the potential of reversing the historical deprivation faced by the Scheduled Tribe & Scheduled Caste communities. The role of education in bringing about upliftment and development of these disadvantaged sections of society is uncontested.

The Administrative Department, being the nodal department for the welfare of Tribal communities, is taking earnest efforts to improve the educational attainment among tribal students through its range of enabling education programme/ schemes such as opening of residential schools and hostels for improving access, upgradation of schools to higher levels, including Higher Secondary, incentives in form of scholarships to ST/SC students and other supports in form of free books, & uniform etc. In view of the progressive steps taken by the State Government, the education scenario amongst the ST / SC communities have been witnessing significant improvements over the years with increasing literacy rates and enhanced participation of tribal students at different levels of education. However, while one can see a significant progress in context of elementary and secondary education among the ST/SC Communities, the picture is not that encouraging when it comes to higher & technical education and participation and success rate of theirs in the various competitive examinations.

Though the Administrative Department, with the assistance of Central Government, is providing Scholarships to promote more and more ST/SC student taking up technical education, the bottleneck remains the lesser number of students qualifying for these courses cracking the tough competitive entrance examinations. The reasons for such scenario are varied; however, one of the primary reasons is the lack of opportunity for level playing field to compete with students from other affluent sections of society. Talented ST/SC students, in the absence of resources, are not able to take the benefit of best of the education and coaching facilities available, in order to be adequately prepared to face the challenges of competitive exams and more than often are faced with failures.
